DETAILED ACTION

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

The 112 rejection is withdrawn, in view of applicant's explanations, amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claim s 34-41, 43, 45-62 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dodge et al in view of Balm Paints and Van Voris.

Applicant's arguments filed 11/1/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues, in essence, the prior art has no transport polyurethane as now identified. However, the prior art does indeed recognize urethane polymers utilized as articles, barriers, and coatings, and prepared in accord with short or long duration of active release. Further, inclusion of microcapsular insecticides is also known, and, finally, evidence of the importance of the combination of specific pesticide with polymer to achieve desired rate of release is shown by applicant's own earlier work. We do not see the identification of the polymer, as for instance, claim 34 with the subject matter of claims 43 or 50, and 46 or 49, and 35 and 57, in the prior art of record.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
